CCA Oregon has an immediate opening for its Executive Director position.

The ideal candidate will be a resourceful and energetic self-starter with a passion for the outdoors in general and marine resource conservation in particular. He or she will direct, oversee, and carry out the mission, goals, and objectives of the Board of Directors.

Primary responsibilities include oversight of operations, raising funds to support the organization through banquet fundraising, local chapter events, and membership development programs. Candidate must be able to regularly travel within the state of Oregon. Personal enjoyment of fishing and hunting is very helpful.

Applicants should possess a degree in business, finance, marketing, or other related field and possess excellent oral and written communication skills. Must have experience with fundraising, event planning and budgeting. Interested, qualified applicants are encouraged to send comprehensive resume and salary history to HR@joincca.org.
